You shall not abuse a needy and destitute laborer, whether a fellow countrymen or a stranger in one of the community of your land."
Deuteronomy 24:14

"Listen! The wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out."
James 5:4

"Men shall have the benefit of what they earn, and women shall have the benefit of what they earn."
Holy Qur'an 4:32

Please join us for the Sixth Annual Faith-Labor Breakfast from 7:45 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. on March 12, at Highland Christian Center, 7600 NE Glisan St. in Portland.

Portland Jobs with Justice Faith-Labor Committee, Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon, the Northwest Oregon Labor Council and Oregon Farmworker Ministries, invite clergy, lay leaders, and trade union activists to gather for prayer, fellowship and breakfast. Our purpose is simple: to celebrate and build on the long history of our shared values and shared struggles for justice and to continue to build relationships.

Last year, over 100 clergy, labor leaders, union members and other people of faith gathered to look at the economic systems we live. The theme of this years breakfast is We Are All In This Together! Faith and Labor Connections: Past Present and Future. We will do a fun history activity and look at how we move forward together. As labor unionists and people of faith, we raise our voices for justice. Let's share our stories at the breakfast.

We look forward to seeing you March 12th . Please contact Portland Jobs with Justice if you have any questions or want to learn more about our role in helping bring faith community members and labor activists together.

Cost for breakfast is $7 per person.

Please register by March 2nd to Portland Jobs with Justice by mailing in the enclosed form and Payment to
